

Homeward Bound (CH) (Charnwood Large Print Library Series)

A compulsive tale of romance and adventure. 1924...the liner SS Karachi is homeward bound from Bombay to England, via Aden, Suez and Gibraltar, carrying passengers and crew from all walks of life, each with a story to tell. The crew, headed by Captain Angus Meiklejohn, have a group of First Class passengers who will be in their charge for twenty five days, and who will affect their lives in unpredictable ways. Before reaching home, the decks of the SS Karachi see dramas of deceit, heroism, passion and revenge, and before the crew and passengers reach their destinations, there are ghosts to be laid and scores to be settled, with explosive results.
