

Long Long Honeymoon - Living Large in a Small Tin Can: Advice for Airstream / RV Travelers

After getting married in the Florida Keys, C.S. (Sean) & Kristy Michael spent their wedding night in their newly purchased recreational vehicle a 25-foot Airstream travel trailer. Instead of jaunting off to honeymoon on a posh Pacific island, the newlyweds hitched up their trusty Ford diesel truck (nicknamed SEEMORE) and started exploring America. Their long long honeymoon journey stretched over 60,000 miles, ranging from Key West (the southernmost point in the United States) all the way up to Banff, Alberta (thats in Canada, eh?). They camped in every conceivable environment, from scenic national parks to less-than-exotic asphalt parking lots. They visited every one of the lower 48 states. Along the way, Sean blogged the trip in text and video. They explore the lighter side of travel; or as Kristy says, the fun stuff! Why did they do it? Because life should be a long long honeymoon.

LONG LONG HONEYMOON - LIVING LARGE IN A SMALL TIN CAN combines the best of Seans blog entries with original never-before-published anecdotes of the trip. This book is a unique hybrid, combining good old fashioned storytelling with valuable detailed information. The hilarious first portion of the book explores the couples quest to locate and purchase an Airstream travel trailer. The heart of the book contains crucial advice and tips on the art of RV travel. For many RV travelers, these essays contain valuable information that make this book a handy reference guide. The result is a must read for anyone pondering life on wheels.
