

God in the Shower

A delightful and inspirational collection of meditations on life from one of our best-loved religious broadcasters. Colin Morris, a Methodist minister and regular contributor to Thought for the Day on Radio 4's Today programme has brought together the very best of his early morning talks. As he says in his Introduction, their aim is to say something that is witty without being self-consciously clever, serious but not dull, earthed in the real world yet offering the stuff of which dreams are made, religious without being churchy and committed but not dogmatic. They deal with perennial aspects of the human situation, sometimes sparked off by a topical event - be it political earthquakes or actual ones, famines, floods and crises - but more often simply seeking to offer a glimpse of a workaday world alive with God. Touching, inspirational and uplifting, these daily meditations offer the chance for a moment or two of reflection in our increasingly busy lives.
