The greatest threats come from within. The X-Men have emerged victorious from the fight of their lives, narrowly defeating Bastion and his army of Nimrod Sentinels. But the wounds run deep--and when one X-Man loses control, another does the unthinkable in realiation. Then, following the shocking events of Age of X, the X-Men are left with memories of lives un-lived and feelings never felt. Can the team pull together after witnessing the unimaginable, or will the burden of these recollections be too much for the X-Men to bear? COLLECTING: X-MEN LEGACY #242-244 and #248-249,
